After ascending the first tower, at 95 feet (29 m) above the forest floor, you will literally walk through the treetops for one-and-a-half hours along suspension bridges that link eight observation platforms. Enjoy landscapes and vistas that would be unimaginable from below, while on the lookout for giant strangler fig trees, orchids, toucans, woodpeckers, trogons and with a little luck birds of prey, monkeys or sloths. After your descent from the Canopy, experience the Anaconda Walk for about 15 minutes along the 200-meter wooden bridge over the wetland. On your walk, keep an eye out for rainbow coloured macaws and butterflies, and listen for the barking call of the peccaries and chattering of monkeys that call the jungle home. Return to the lodge for lunch. At dusk, take a ride with your naturalist guide by motorized canoe on the Madre de Dios River. the southern constellations. Return to the lodge once again to freshen up, then enjoy some dinner. After dinner there will be an optional night walk through the jungle. Overnight in Amazon Lodge.

DAY 6: Sacred Valley- Machu Picchu-Inka Trail to Intipunku-Sacred Valley

Early this morning, private transfer to the Sacred Valley's Ollanta Station and board the Inca Rail Train for the ancient citadel of Machu Picchu, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Also known as "The Lost City of the Incas", Machu Picchu was built circa 1450 and abandoned only 100 years later. The purpose of this splendid city is still a mystery to modern historians. Meet your tour guide at the train station and take the shuttle bus to the Machu Pichu entrance.

Enjoy exploring the ancient citadel and marveling at the imposing Temple of the Sun, the House of the Priest, the Sacred Plaza and the intricately carved rock likely used as a sundial by the ancient Incas. The images of this significant archaeological site will be a long-lasting memory. Take the train to Ollanta Station and then transfer back to your hotel. Overnight in Sacred Valley.

Meals: Breakfast

DAY 7: Maras - Moray - Saqsaywaman Ruins - Cusco

Today you may enjoy the morning at leisure or join the optional Moray and Maras optional tour(US$60). Begin the tour in Moray, an impressive agricultural center that demonstrates the ancient Incan's mastery of high-altitude crop growing. Here, you'll see a large complex of terraced circular depressions in the earth which historians believe were used to study the climatic conditions on crops. As you descend each layer, the surrounding temperature descends as well, degree by degree, making for a unique and highly sophisticated thermographic tool. During the tour, you'll have the opportunity to see the local farmers and shepherds working with native crops and animals all along the valley. This is a unique chance to peer into the daily lives of the indigenous people. We continue to the salt mines of Maras. At this amazing site, you can see the pans fed by saline spring water that were built on steep terraces along one side of a narrow valley. The water is sent throughout the pans by a network of channels where the water slowly evaporates leaving the salt behind. Salt has been collected from Maras since Pre-Incan times and it is thought that a collective of salt 'miners' has maintained the terraces and channels for hundreds of years. Then continue our tour to Cusco. On-route we visit Saqsaywaman. In addition to a wonderful view over Cusco, UNESCO World Heritage-listed Saqsaywaman boasts massive stones, measuring up to 13 feet (4 meters) tall, placed tightly together, creating a fortress-like structure. As you walk around with your guide, learn about the site's history and defensive purpose. We continue to Puca Pucara, a site of military ruins used for defense of the Inca Empire. Private transportation to your hotel in Cusco. Overnight in Cusco.

Meals: Breakfast

DAY 8: Imperial Cusco - San Blas Neighborhood

Spend today independently discovering the "Imperial City" of Cuzco, once the capital of the Inca Empire and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This lively city, rich in history, reveals remains of both the Incan and the Spanish presence. The flawlessly built Incan roads spread to all regions from the "Plaza" which was thought of as the center of the world. Visit the impressive Colonial Cathedral in Cuzco which contains over 400 paintings from the Cusqueña School in addition to an impressive collection of colonial art. Continue on to visit the Temple of the Sun, whose walls and floors were allegedly once covered by sheets of solid gold. This temple was once the most important religious site of the Incas. Stroll with your tour guide through San Blas, the artistic part of town. During the tour, you will have the opportunity to visit a local shop featuring alpaca clothing and accessories, and a local jewelry shop, featuring gold and silver necklaces, bracelets, earrings, and rings. This evening, join the optional dinner with folklore show (US$59). It includes a folkloric show and buffet dinner. Spend an unforgettable evening enjoying a wonderful buffet dinner and spectacular show featuring the most important manifestations of dances, music and Peruvian folklore. Overnight in Cuzco.

In it you'll find gold and metal work, pottery, ceremonial jewelry, textiles, and mummies. The museum also explains the cultural significance and importance of coca leaves to the Incas. It is a good place to start in any attempt to gain a better understanding of the Incas and their culture. Then visit Pre-Columbian Art Museum. Located inside an Inca ceremonial house that dates back to 1450 AD, this is Peru's only museum dedicated to ancient Peruvian art. Inside you'll find a collection of 450 pieces that date from 1250 BC to 1532 AD. The artworks are all from Lima's Museo Larco's storage collection, and descriptions in various languages help to give you a fuller picture and understanding of the people who created them.
